Financial & Insurance Agreement

I understand that in order to provide quality professional counseling; Adirondack Samaritan Counseling Center must charge a fee for its service.

I also understand that ultimately I am the responsible party for all services provided by Adirondack Samaritan Counseling Center who will bill my health insurance company for services provided to my children or myself.

It is your responsibility to contact your insurance company to obtain the following information:

- The amount of your co-pay.
- You need to know whether or not you need to obtain a referral or preauthorization.
- If your scheduled clinician is a participating provider.

Any changes made to your insurance policy need to be reported to our business office immediately in order to keep current and accurate records. Failure to do so will result in being charged at the full fee.

I agree to pay the portion of the charge, which the insurance company states is my responsibility, which may include a deductible amount, a percentage of the charge for each session, or because coverage was not in effect.

I also agree that the Samaritan Center will wait for the insurance portion of the charge until the insurance company pays the amount, then I am responsible to pay the Samaritan Center any amount that I receive for services rendered, up to the full, actual charge per session. I will endorse the insurance check to the Samaritan Center or write a check equal to that amount, within one week of receiving it.

I herewith give my permission to the Adirondack Samaritan Counseling Center to perform any mental health assessment and treatments as necessary. Furthermore, consent to release to my health insurance company (if applicable) information necessary to process any request for insurance benefits. I also give permission for Adirondack Samaritan Counseling Center to inform my primary physician and/or referring professional of my participation in counseling and any medications recommended by the Center's clinical staff. I also authorize my insurance company to pay benefits directly to the Adirondack Samaritan Counseling Center.

I have read this agreement and accept all of its terms and conditions. I also understand that this agreement may be renegotiated if circumstances change.

Notice of Adirondack Samaritan Counseling Center Privacy Practice

This notice tells you how we make use of your Protected Health Information (PHI) at our Center, how we might disclose your health information to others and how you can get access to the same information.

Please review this notice carefully and feel free to ask for clarification about anything in this material you might not understand. The privacy of your health information is very important to us and we want to do everything possible to protect that privacy.

We have a legal responsibility under the laws of the United States and the state of New York to keep your health information private. Part of our responsibility is to give you this notice about our privacy practices. Another part of our responsibility is to follow the practices in this notice.

The effective date of this notice is September 2013.

We have the right to change any of these privacy practices as long as those changes are permitted or required by law.

Any changes in our privacy practices will affect how we protect the privacy of your PHI. This includes health information we will receive about you or that we create here at Adirondack Samaritan Counseling Center. These changes could also affect how we protect the privacy of any of your PHI we had before the changes.

When we make these changes, we will also change this notice and upon your request will send a copy or provide a copy at your next appointment. We will also post an updated version on our website.

When you are finished reading this notice; you may request a copy of it at no charge to you. If you request a copy of this notice at any time in the future, we will give you a copy at no charge.

If you have any questions or concerns about the material in this document, please ask us for assistance which we will provide at no charge to you.

Here are some examples of how we use and disclose information about your PHI:

We may use or disclose your health information; with your authorization

- 1. To your physical or other healthcare provider who is also treating you.
- 2. To anyone on our staff involved in your treatment program.
- 3. To any person required by federal, state, or local laws to have lawful access to your treatment program.
- 4. To receive payment from a third party payer for services we provided for you.
- 5. To our own staff in connection with our Center's operation. Examples include, but are not limited to the following: evaluating the effectiveness of our staff, supervising our staff, improving the quality of our services, meeting accreditation standards, and in connection with licensing, credentialing, or certification activities.
- 6. To anyone you give us written authorization to have your health information, for any reason you want. You may revoke this authorization in writing anytime you want. When you revoke an authorization it will only effect your health information from that point on.

By law, we may disclose private health information in a number of circumstances in which you do not have to consent, give authorization, or otherwise have an opportunity to agree or object. We may use or disclose your health information; without your authorization

1. To a family member, a person responsible for your care, or your personal representative in the event of an emergency. If you are present in such a case, we will give you an opportunity to object. If you object, or are not present, or are incapable of responding, we may use our professional judgment, in light of the emergency, to go ahead and use or disclose your health information that are necessary to respond to the emergency.

- 2. To proper authorities in the event of suspected or reported abuse or maltreatment (as defined by the Social Services Law) of any child under the age of 18 or any elder.
- 3. To proper authorities in the event you or someone else is in clear or imminent danger.

We will not use your health information in any of our Center's marketing, development, public relations or related activities without your written authorization. We cannot use or disclose your health information in any ways other than those described in this notice unless you give us written permission.

As a client of Adirondack Samaritan Counseling Center, you have these important rights:

- 1. With limited exceptions, you can make a written request to inspect your health information that is maintained by us for our use.
- 2. You can ask us for photocopies of the information in part "1" above.
- 3. We will charge you a reasonable cost-base fee.
- 4. You have a right to a copy of this notice at no charge.
- 5. You can make a written request to have us communicate with you about your health information by alternative means, at an alternative location. (An example would be if your primary language is not spoke at this Center, and we are treating a child or whom you have lawful custody.) Your written per request must specify the alternative means and location.
- 6. You can make a written request that we place other restrictions on the way we use or disclose your health information. We may deny any or all of your requested restrictions. If we agree to these restrictions, we will abide by them in all situations except those which, in our professional judgment, constitute an emergency.
- 7. You can make a request that we do not disclose your PHI to your Health Insurance provider if you elect to pay for sessions through Adirondack Samaritan out of pocket.
- 8. You can make a written request that we amend the information in part "1" above.
- 9. If we approve your written amendment, we will change our records accordingly. We will also notify anyone else who may have received this information, and anyone else of your choosing.
- 10. You may make a written request that we provide you with a list of those occasions where we or business associates disclosed your health information for purposes other than treatment, payment, or our Center's operations. This can go back as far as six (6) years.
- 11. If you request the accounting in "10" above more than once in a 12 month period we may charge you a fee based on our actual cost of tabulating these disclosures.
- 12. If you believe we have violated any of your privacy rights, or you disagree with a decision we have made about any of your rights in this notice you may complain to us in writing to the following person:

Compliance Officer: Karen Weidner Telephone: (518)747-2994 Fax: (518)747-2996

Email: kweidner@adksamaritan.org

Address: 15 Boulevard, Hudson Falls, NY 12839

- 13. You may also submit a written complaint to the United States Department of Health and Human Services. We will provide you with the address upon written request.
- 14. Breach Notification: If there is a breach of unsecured personal health information concerning you, we may be required to notify you of this breach, including what happened and what you can do to protect yourself.
